

Profile Charlotte du Plessis

Visionary Leader Empowering People for a Better Future

Welcome to the inspiring world of Charlotte du Plessis, a renowned visionary, philanthropist, entrepreneur, and mentor. With an unwavering commitment to making a significant impact in the lives of others, Charlotte is building a legacy as a tenacious woman who empowers and uplifts women and men alike.

As the Founder of Woman of Stature, a highly successful women's business network in South Africa and across the globe, Charlotte has demonstrated her innate ability to form strategic partnerships.

Since its official launch in April 2013, Woman of Stature has become a beacon of empowerment providing invaluable support and opportunities for women to thrive.

Charlotte's passion for helping women extends far beyond the call of duty. In 2018, she established the Woman of Stature Foundation, a proudly South African non-profit organization. Guided by a powerful vision, the foundation is dedicated to supporting women through a range of impactful programs.

Notably, Charlotte spearheaded the formation of the Woman Rise program, which enables businesswomen to reset their lives and achieve remarkable success.

Recognizing the extraordinary achievements of women, Charlotte initiated the Woman of Stature Recognition Awards in 2013. Through this prestigious platform, she has empowered hundreds of women, shining a spotlight on their remarkable accomplishments and inspiring others to reach for greatness.

Adding to her list of accolades, Charlotte recently secured a momentous appointment as the global awards partner of Hadarat Global, and hosted the first Woman of Stature Global Awards in Dubai, powered by Hadarat Global. This remarkable achievement further underscores Charlotte's influence and recognition on an international scale, as she continues to foster connections and celebrate women's excellence.

With Charlotte du Plessis at the helm, followers gain access to a world of opportunity, empowerment, and mentorship. Her visionary leadership and unwavering dedication, makes her a powerful force for change, inspiring individuals to embrace their potential and shape a better future.

Join Charlotte's thriving community of followers and connect with a network of ambitious individuals who share a common goal of empowerment and success. Together, we can build a new nation of strong, resilient women and men who are transforming lives and making a lasting impact.