

Thandi J Mabena is an innovative business and human capital strategist who works and coaches Leaders, Teams Entrepreneurs and individuals to empower them to achieve their goals.

Thandi has an MBA (Bond University) Australia and studied Business Optimization at GIBS University amongst other qualifications. She is also a certified Dispute Resolution Practitioner and is a thought leader in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Leadership and Business/Entrepreneurship practices with special interest in Youth, Women and SMEs.

She is an accredited Gallup Strengths Coach and a member of the International Coaching Federation (ICF). Thandi is also a Facilitator of Crucial Mentoring Conversations. She is currently working with Businesses/Corporates, Executives, Managers, Mentors, Mentees, Teams, Individuals, Business Owners, and SMEs in South Africa, Africa and beyond assisting them with strategies to achieve their desired goals in a sustainable way – building Business/Personal leadership and embedding the much desired High Performance culture for business success and growth.

Thandi has vast experience in assisting corporates and entrepreneurs with Diversity Equity and Inclusion, Business Strategy Development, Leadership and Business Accelerator Programs for growth and sustainability.

She is a Board Member at the Cape Chamber of Commerce and Industry. She Chairs the Business Chamber Social and Ethics Committee because of her commitment to good governance., Chairperson of the Skills Development Association; South Africa. She is also an Advisory Committee Member of the False Bay College Centre of Entrepreneurship Rapid Incubator.

She enjoys her involvement in academics as a Part-time Lecturer at the University of Stellenbosch Business School.